Officers R.A. Wingenried and E. Huffermuth investigated an auto accident at E. 2nd St., and Berckman St., at 4:22 P.M. and reported, that upon arrival they found one Douglas Farham, age 40, of Mattituck, N.Y., injured. This man claimed to have lost a woman's gold wrist watch, valued at $40.00. The watch was in his vest pocket previous to the accident.

Serjt G. Muir and Officer J.M. Sliker assisted at the scene of the accident as well as the search for the watch.

There were a large number of broken bottles swept to the curb near the culvert, and there is a possibility of the watch being among same, unless some one in the crowd picked it up.

One wrist watch turned in by Jw. M. Jones of #308 E 3rd St. Jones found it on running board of his car.
Jones is the person who was involved in an accident last night when his car struck Mrs. Haley of #722 West 4th St.
This watch, Jones seems to think is the property of Mrs. Haley.

Mrs. Myrtle Karmell, #721 Kensington Ave., reports the loss of her checkered shopping bag in The Famous Shop at 243 West Front St., about 5-PM. She phoned headquarters at 5:30 PM. after reporting to Ptl. Veen at Front & Madison. In this bag was a pair of men's shoes, a man's shirt & tie, a skirt, a silk night gown, Christmas cards, maid's uniform etc. Total value about $20.

At the same time in this store was a young colored girl, about 20 years old, also doing some shopping, and she also had a shopping bag just like the one Mrs. Karnell lost. Now this colored person evidently took Mrs. Karnell's bag and left her own. There is nothing of any value in the bag that is left at the store. Mrs. Karnell, left her name and address at the store and her description of the colored girl is as follows: Name, Miss. Brown, wearing slacks, and a white overalls coat, young looking, about 30 years old. No marks of identification of any kind in either bag.

At about 1:10 this a.m., Mr. Corrado Corradi of 184 Diner St. No. Plainfield, N.J. stated that at about 1:00 A.M. he parked his car, a Dodge Coach, color black, 1937 model Reg. KH87A N.J. in front of a restaurant at no. 6 Grove St.; in this car in the back seat, his daughter, Leonora, age 6 years old was asleep. About two minutes later he came out and found his car gone; also the child. I immediately notified all patrolmen & had teletype sent out.

At about 1:45 A.M. I learned that this car was apprehended on Harrison Lane in No. Plainfield by the No. Plainfield Police.

In the car they found the child still asleep and also Victor Olsen, age 28, of 471 Somerset St.

Mrs. Williams, 725 Irving Place, reports that 3 young Negro children came to her home and rang the front door bell. Then after a short time they went around to the rear door and rang that bell. Neither Mrs.
Williams or her Mother could answer right away, but when she did manage to get to the rear door, an empty egg box that was left there for the egg man to pick up, had been opened and a one dollar bill taken from same. They were all young boys about 12 years of age and one wore horn rimmed glasses. This happened some time before Mrs. Williams phoned headquarters. Occasionally Mrs.
Williams gives children flowers from her garden and she thought that was what these boys were after.
